Scholarship Committee Announces
2009 Annual Meeting St. Louis Student Program,
May 27-31, 2009

The Scholarship Committee of the Alliance for Historic Landscape Preservation (AHLP) announces the availability of one or more scholarships for students in preservation-related fields to attend and to present their work at the May 2009 Annual Meeting in St. Louis, Missouri.

The Scholarship provides a waiver of the conference fee and an honorarium of $300 for travel expenses. Successful student applicants will present their preservation research at the Annual Meeting poster session or, as a paper presentation during the Meeting Program. Applicants should plan to attend the entire conference; the minimum attendance requirement is two full conference days.

Completed applications must include these components:

- (1) a letter of interest in attending the conference;
- (2) your resume;
- (3) a 500-word abstract of your preservation-related studies to be presented at the Annual Meeting; and,
- (4) letters of reference from three faculty members and/or employers who know your work.
